

Market Analyst

Uhlig LLC is offering an exciting opportunity for talented and motivated individuals interested in providing analytical support to key executives.

Job Description:

Successful candidates will generate charts/graphs, write summaries and provide executive briefings of findings; complete business reviews of financial and operational data; model various elements of company revenue and cost structure; identify business unit performance in comparison to goals; collect and interpret diverse data related to multiple industries; analyze industry demographics and trends; define data models and data definitions; and execute statistical analysis. Our analysts must be independent, self-motivated and highly detail-oriented; have an interest in and aptitude for development/management; and exhibit a history of strong teamwork and dependability. An individual who is resourceful and energetic with a competitive nature that demands excellence will excel in our environment.

Uhlig LLC is a fast-growing, advanced-technology publishing company specializing in content-rich documents and periodicals that are delivered in web, print and electronic forms. Based on its proprietary, Internet-based software platforms, Uhlig LLC provides products and services to customers throughout North America, and is a national leader in the field of cross-media, variable-content publishing. Ambitious, imaginative individuals who embrace change and enjoy expanding the boundaries of traditional design and communication will thrive in our fast-paced, innovation-centered culture.

Experience:

Candidates must possess a bachelor's degree in accounting, statistics, finance, economics or business and have 2+ years of proven experience or be a recent college graduate with high GPA and referrals. Candidates must be self-starters with proven analytical, quantitative and organizational skills; be proficient in Microsoft Word, Excel and Outlook; and have a working knowledge of database systems. A professional presentation, excellent interpersonal skills and the ability to produce effective verbal and written communication are also required.

We provide a culture that fosters business and professional growth. We work in a modern, high-technology office environment and offer generous opportunities for continuing work-related education and career advancement. EOE
